Sangeetha Kalanidhi Dr R. K. Srikantan hails from a distinguished traditional family of musicians in Rudrapatnam in Karnataka and belongs to a rare breed of Carnatic musicians who strive and achieve perfection within the bounds of tradition or sampradaayam. His father late Sri Krishnasastry was a great scholar, a versatile artist and a Harikatha vidwan. His grandfather Sri Narayanappa of Bettadapura was also a great musician and a close friend of Sri Veena Seshanna of Mysore. Sri Srikantan was initiated in to music by his father and later by his brother Sri R.K.Venkataramasastry - a leading violinist. It is notable that Sri Srikantan belongs to the lineage of shishya parampara of Sathguru Thyagaraja himself. Sri. Srikantan's disciples of prominence include Sri Rudrapatnam Ramakanth, Smt M.S.Sheela, Smt T.S.Sathyavathi and others. Sri Srikantan has also been a recipient of many awards and titles including the prestigious Sangeetha Kalanidhi

Sangeetha Kala Praveena R. S. Ramakanth is a child prodigy with training from his father R.K. Srikantan and uncle R K Venkatarama Sastri. He is provided with rich flexible voice, profound imagination and traditional style of singing and has performed in India, UK, Switzerland, Australia and many other countries He has been recently selected by International Biographical Center of UK and American Biographical Society for inclusion in the international Who's (International Youth achievement). He was honored in the International Year of Youth (1985) by the confederation of 3 music institutions Saraswati Ganasabha, Sruti Soundarya and Sripuram Cultural Association and was given the title Sangeetha Kala Praveena. He has also won the Best Musician Award by Bangalore Gayana Samaja in 1975 and by Music Academy in 1993

Dr. K.V.S. Vinay hails from a musical family. He is the grandson of Sangeetha Kalanidhi late Sri T.K. Jayarama Iyer, violinist and composer. Vinay had his initial training from Mrs. Vanaja Aravamuthan and subsequently trained under late Sri V. Janakiraman and Sri Kovai B. Dakshinamurthy of All India Radio, Chennai. A concert performer for 20 years, Vinay has had the privilege of accompanying several leading musicians and also performing as a successful solo artiste. He has featured on national radio and TV in India and has won many awards including an Indian government scholarship for training in music. He has a Ph.D.degree in economics and works for a leading financial services company.

Dr. Ramachandran Suresh is a disciple of Thiruvaiyaru V. Gurumurthy, a student of the mridhangam maestro Palani Anna. As a graded artist of the All India Radio, he has been featured in many radio, television and music sabha programs in India. Ramachandran has had the privilege of performing with many leading musicians including T.N.Seshagopalan, Ravi Kiran, Prof.T.R.Subramaniam and Tanjore Kalyanaraman. He holds a Ph.D.degree in Mathematical Sciences and is currently working for the R&D division of a pharmaceutical company
